

THERE'S ALWAYS NEXT SEASON is Carl Christian Lein Størmers (born 1982) debut feature film. After touring the world with various underground bands through the 2000s and taking a Medical Degree, he bought his first camera in 2008. He stopped touring, quit his day job and started the work that would be THERE'S ALWAYS NEXT SEASON. On the way he has made several experimental short films, over sixty music videos and the snowboard odyssey 1997 FOREVER (2015), which to this day, can only be experienced live in theatres with his band 1997.
